PRELUDE

Alex Sandor

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

INTROIT

There is a place of quiet rest, near to the heart of God,
A place where sin cannot molest, near to the heart of God.

O Jesus, blest Redeemer, sent from the heart of God,
Hold us, who wait before thee, near to the heart of God.

(#824, stanza 1)

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Take a deep breath and breathe in God's Holy Spirit.

All: Take a deep breath and listen to the quiet of this place.

One: In the midst of life's noise and hustle,

All: In the midst of life's demands and troubles,

One: We come to this place of refuge.

All: We come seeking God in the quiet.

HYMN

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

#169

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: Let us pray.

All: O holy God, we have done what we should not have done, and we have left undone that which we should have done. Forgive us. When we grow discouraged and doubt our own worth in your eyes, forgive us. When we seek you in the miraculous and forget to look for you in the ordinary, forgive us. Nourish us with your word, strengthen us for your work, and renew our confidence in your abiding presence. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: God is with us, in all times and in all places.

Though it may sometimes seem that God is absent,
God is with us. God forgives us, renews us, strengthens us, and calls us to live with joy and courage.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

You are invited to bless those around you with the words,

"The peace of Christ be with you."

RESPONSE

There is a place of comfort sweet, near to the heart
of God.

A place where we our Savior meet, near to the heart
of God.

O Jesus, blest Redeemer, sent from the heart of God,
Hold us, who wait before thee, near to the heart of God.

(#824, stanza 2)

RESPONSIVE READING FROM THE PSALMS

Psalm 42

One: As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

All: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

One: When shall I come and behold the face of God?

All: My tears have been my food day and night.

One: People say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

All: As I pour out my soul, I remember how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

One: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?

All: Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

One: My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember.

All: Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your waterfalls;

One: All your waves and your billows have gone over me.

All: By day the Lord commands his steadfast love,

One: At night the Lord's song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

All: I say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?"

One: I ask, "Why must I walk about mournfully when the enemy oppresses me?"

All: As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me.

One: They say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

All: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?

One: Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

OFFERTORY

*OFFERING HYMN

Breathe on us, Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew,

That we may love what thou dost love,

And do what thou wouldst do.

(#286, stanza 1)

*PRAYER

One: Let us bless these gifts.

All: We pray in profound thanksgiving for communities, congregations and people who see the face of God in the face of a wanderer, an asylum seeker or a refugee. We give thanks for those who offer hospitality to newcomers, provide advice and resources, speak a prophetic word, open their homes and their hearts, and make waters flow in the desert. We pray for those who have made their way across continents, oceans and rivers in search of safety, peace and new life. May your Holy Spirit be with them, guiding them still as they bring all their energy, hope and gifts to build a better future together in their new homeland.

Amen.

(From the Presbyterian Mission Calendar, Thursday, June 20)

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, 'So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow.' Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there.

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: 'It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, 'Get up and eat.' He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, 'Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.' He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food for forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there.

Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?' He answered, 'I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.'

He said, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.' Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was

LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?' He answered, 'I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. GOSPEL READING

Luke 8:26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.
