WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

*INTROIT      All People That on Earth Do Dwell

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

O enter then his gates with praise;
Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.      (#385, stanzas 1 and 3)

*CALL TO WORSHIP      Adapted from Psalms 98

One: O sing to God a new song, for God has done marvelous things!

All: God's right hand and holy arm have gotten the victory!

One: God has made this triumph known;

All: God has revealed power in the sight of all the nations!

One: God remembers loving and caring faithfully for our ancestors.

All: Make a joyful noise and break into song!

*HYMN      Our God, our Help in Ages Past      #687

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: God creates us and equips us to do God's work in the world. All too often, we are focused on our own needs and fail to see the ways God works through us for good. Let us acknowledge our blindness and seek God's guidance.

All: Holy God, You place us in communities and call us to be your presence in the world. You equip us to answer your call. Yet often we are blind to the abilities, talents, and skills with which you bless us.
We do not see the ways in which these gifts can be instruments for doing good. Increase our confidence in your presence with us and your power working through us. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: In our baptisms, we have put on Christ Jesus. His victory over sin, death and the power of evil becomes ours. We are forgiven of our sins.

All: Thanks be to God!

RESPONSE      I've Got Peace Like a River

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river,
I've got peace like a river in my soul.
I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river,
I've got peace like a river in my soul.

SCRIPTURE READING

*1 Samuel 17:19-24, 26,
28-29, 31-37*

Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. David rose early in the morning, left someone in charge of the sheep, took the provisions, and went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment as the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry. Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army. David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers. As he talked with them, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.

All the Israelites, when they saw the man, fled from him and were very much afraid. David said to the men who stood by him, 'What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?'

His eldest brother Eliab heard him talking to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David. He said, 'Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption and the evil of your heart; for you have come down just to see the battle.' David said, 'What have I done now? It was only a question.'

When the words that David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him. David said to Saul, 'Let no one's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.' Saul said to David, 'You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.' But David said to Saul, 'Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.' David said, 'The LORD, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.' So Saul said to David, 'Go, and may the LORD be with you!'

GOSPEL READING

1 Peter 2:4-5, 9-10

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
